Dear Colleagues,

Subject: Nomination of Students to Participate in the 60th Meeting of Nobel Laureates, 27 June – 2 July 2010, Lindau, Germany

Following this year’s successful participation of ASEAN students at the 59th Meeting of Nobel Laureates in Lindau, Germany, we are pleased to inform you that ASEAN Member States are invited, once again, by the Council for the Lindau Nobel Laureate Meetings to nominate highly qualified candidates to the 60th Meeting of Nobel Laureates.

The interdisciplinary meeting, which will focus on Chemistry, Physics, Psychology/Medicine, is scheduled to take place on 27 June – 2 July 2010 in Lindau, Germany. Some 600 students and young scientists from all over the world are expected to participate in the scientific discussions. As in previous years, the Meeting will include lectures on specific topics by the Laureates, panel discussions and discussions between the Laureates and students in study groups.

Nominations of up two highly qualified candidates from each ASEAN Member State are open from now until 31 October 2009. Enclosed are the selection criteria and nomination form for your kind attention. Please submit the completed nomination form and its supporting documents to the ASEAN Secretariat (attention to: Mr. Budidarmo P. Kuntjoro-Jakti, Mailing address: Jl. Sisingamangaraja 70A, Jakarta 12110, Indonesia. Fax: +62-21-7398234, 7243504, email: budidarmo@asean.org).

Please be informed that a nomination is not equivalent to an acceptance of the candidate to participate in the meeting. All nominated candidates will be evaluated by the Council for the Lindau Nobel Laureates Meetings and only up to 12 highly qualified candidates from ASEAN Member States will be selected. The selected nominees will be announced after the conclusion of the evaluation process.

We also would like to inform you that the cost for board and lodging of € 500, participation fee of € 500 and travel costs are expected on a self-funding basis.
